Valuation Opinion

I. Summary of Enterprise Value

7. The Valuation Analysis was prepared as of November 9, 2023, at the time of the filing of the Initial Disclosure Statement. PJT estimated the range of the Enterprise Value of the Reorganized Debtors, collectively, as of the then assumed Effective Date of December 31, 2023, to be approximately $1.4 billion to approximately $1.8 billion. For purposes of the Valuation Analysis, I assumed that no changes that would materially affect the Enterprise Value would occur between the date that the Initial Disclosure Statement was filed and the then assumed Effective Date. I am also not aware of any factors that would materially affect the Enterprise Value based on the now anticipated Effective Date of January 23, 2024.

II. Summary of Plan Equity Value

8. The Valuation Analysis also includes an estimated potential range of the Plan Equity Value of the Reorganized Debtors, as of the assumed Effective Date of December 31, 2023, which consists of the Enterprise Value minus the sum of the net debt (calculated by subtracting the estimated excess cash balance from the estimated total debt as of the assumed Effective Date) of the Reorganized Debtors.

9. Based on the assumptions made as of the filing of the Initial Disclosure Statement on November 9, 2023, PJT previously estimated the range of Plan Equity Value of the Reorganized Debtors, collectively, as of the then assumed Effective Date of December 31, 2023, to be approximately $694 million to approximately $1.094 billion. However, to account for updates to the anticipated capital structure upon the now assumed Effective Date since the filing of the Initial Disclosure Statement, I estimate the range of Plan Equity Value of the Reorganized Debtors, collectively, as of the now assumed Effective Date of January 23, 2024, to be approximately $832 million to approximately $1.232 billion, calculated based on an estimated pro forma excess cash balance of approximately $40 million and estimated pro forma indebtedness of $608 million, which consists of approximately (a) $61 million drawn under the Exit Facility, (b) $150 million of New Secured Notes, (c) $260 million of New Secured Convertible Notes, (d) $53 million of Miner Equipment Lender Takeback Debt, (e) $20 million of reinstated Other Secured Claims, (f) $54 million of secured debt for mechanic's liens claimants under the M&M Lien Settlements, (g) $9 million of unsecured debt under the Dalton Settlement,⁵ and (h) $1 million of Secured Mortgage Claims.

III. Valuation Assumptions

10. The Valuation Analysis represents a valuation of the Reorganized Debtors assuming continuing operations of the Debtors' business, after giving effect to the Plan, based on the application of standard valuation techniques and methodologies. The estimated values set forth in this Declaration and the Valuation Analysis: (a) do not purport to reflect or constitute an appraisal of the assets of the Reorganized Debtors; (b) do not constitute an opinion on the terms and provisions or fairness from a financial point of view to any Holder of the consideration to be received by such Holder under the Plan; (c) do not constitute a recommendation to any Holder of

⁵ See Order (I) Authorizing Assumption and Performance of the Legacy Dalton Agreements, As Amended By the Dalton Settlement Agreement and (II) Granting Related Relief (Docket No. 1651) (the "Dalton Settlement").

Claims or Interests as to how such Holder should vote or otherwise act with respect to the Plan; and (d) do not necessarily reflect the actual value that might be realized through a sale or liquidation of the Reorganized Debtors or any securities or funded indebtedness to be issued pursuant to the Plan, which may be different than the amounts set forth in the Valuation Analysis.

11. The Valuation Analysis is based on (a) review of certain historical financial information of the Debtors for recent years and interim periods provided by the Debtors; (b) discussion regarding the Debtors' performance, future prospects, and industry observations with certain members of the Debtors' senior management; (c) certain economic and industry information relevant to the Debtors' operating businesses; (d) the financial projections attached as Exhibit E to the Initial Disclosure Statement (the "Financial Projections"); and (e) such other studies and analyses as I deemed appropriate. Neither I nor PJT independently verified the Financial Projections or other information that PJT used in the Valuation Analysis, PJT is not offering an opinion as to the attainability of the Financial Projections, and no independent valuations or appraisals of the Debtors or their assets were sought or obtained in connection therewith. It is common for professionals conducting a valuation analysis and providing opinions on valuation to rely on the types of information provided and prepared by company management or other advisors.

12. The estimated values set forth in the Valuation Analysis assume that the Reorganized Debtors will achieve their Financial Projections in all material respects. The Debtors' management team advised PJT that the Financial Projections were reasonably prepared in good faith and on a basis reflecting the Debtors' best estimates and judgments as to the future operating and financial performance of the Reorganized Debtors. The Valuation Analysis assumed that the actual performance of the Reorganized Debtors will correspond to the Financial Projections in all material respects.

13. In addition, as disclosed in Exhibit D to the Initial Disclosure Statement, the value of an operating business is subject to numerous uncertainties and contingencies that are difficult to predict and will fluctuate with changes in factors affecting the financial condition and prospects of such a business. As a result, the Valuation Analysis is not necessarily indicative of actual outcomes, which may be significantly more or less favorable than those set forth therein. Furthermore, the actual value of newly issued securities and funded indebtedness is subject to additional uncertainties and contingencies, all of which are difficult to predict. Finally, the Valuation Analysis is not necessarily indicative of actual values or future results, which may be significantly more or less favorable than those described herein.

14. For purposes of the Valuation Analysis, I assumed that no material changes that could affect estimated Enterprise Value would occur between the date of the Valuation Analysis and the Effective Date and I am not aware of any such material changes. The Valuation Analysis does not constitute an opinion as to the fairness from a financial point of view of the consideration to be received or paid under the Plan, of the terms and provisions of the Plan, or with respect to any other matters.

IV. Methodology

15. In preparing the Valuation Analysis, I considered a variety of factors and evaluated a variety of financial analyses, including: (a) a discounted cash flow (“DCF”) analysis; (b) a comparable companies analysis; and (c) a precedent transaction analysis. These methodologies are standard and commonly used valuation techniques. In performing the Valuation Analysis, I relied primarily upon the DCF analysis and comparable companies analysis.

While I considered the precedent transactions analysis, I deemed this methodology to be of limited relevance due to a lack of precedent transactions.

16. I did not consider any one analysis or factor to the exclusion of any other analyses or factors. Accordingly, I believe that the Valuation Analysis must be considered as a whole and that selecting portions of the analysis and factors could create a misleading or incomplete view of the processes underlying the preparation of the valuation. Reliance on only one of these methodologies used or portions of the analysis performed could create a misleading or incomplete conclusion.

V. Conclusion

17. As indicated above, based on the methodologies relied upon, I estimate the range of Enterprise Value of the Reorganized Debtors, collectively, as of the assumed Effective Date of January 23, 2024, to be approximately $1.4 billion to approximately $1.8 billion. Based on the estimated pro forma excess cash balance of approximately $40 million and estimated pro forma indebtedness of $608 million as of the assumed Effective Date of January 23, 2024, I estimate the range of the Plan Equity Value for the Reorganized Debtors, collectively, as of the assumed Effective Date of January 23, 2024, to be approximately $832 million to approximately $1.232 billion.

18. For the reasons set forth herein, I believe that the Valuation Analysis of the Reorganized Debtors is based upon relevant sources of information, appropriate valuation assumptions, and appropriate valuation methodologies.
